

Veteran's Day Salute

Valley Bank and Trust

Valley Bank & Trust Co. will open an Office in Heber City if the regulatory agencies give their approval, according to Fred H. Stringham, President. Clair J. Norton will be the manager of the Heber area office, pending those approvals, Mr. Stringham said.

The Valley Bank & Trust Office will be located at 135 South Main Street in Heber City through the acquisition of the Intermountain Thrift & Loan office at that location. Both financial institutions are members of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and wholly owned subsidiaries of Utah Bancorporation.

Clair was born in Heber City and graduated from Wasatch High School. He attended Southern Utah State College before serving a mission for the L.D.S. Church in the North Central States. Mr. Norton worked for Zions Bank for a number of years including services as Manager of the Heber City Office. For the past 4 years Mr. Norton has been President and Director of the First State Bank of Afton, Wyoming.

Afton 4th Ward, as President of the Afton Chamber of Commerce, and Star Valley Chairman of the State of Wyoming Committee that promoted the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles.

Valley Bank & Trust Co. is the lead Bank of Utah Bancorporation.

Dear Editor:

Each week we see a small ad in the Wasatch Wave which states SHOP AT HOME. Many pass it off lightly and continue to travel down the canyons to Provo and Salt Lake to do their shopping. How many of our lives have to be lost on the Wallsburg turnoff or Provo Canyon to make that few dollars savings worthwhile?
